

BUILDING FOR SUCCESS

While some wait for the future to come to them, the North Atlantic States Regional Council of Carpenters is taking steps now to proactively shape where we go next. And, just as a building begins with a blueprint, our future begins with a shared vision.

Additional Educational Opportunities

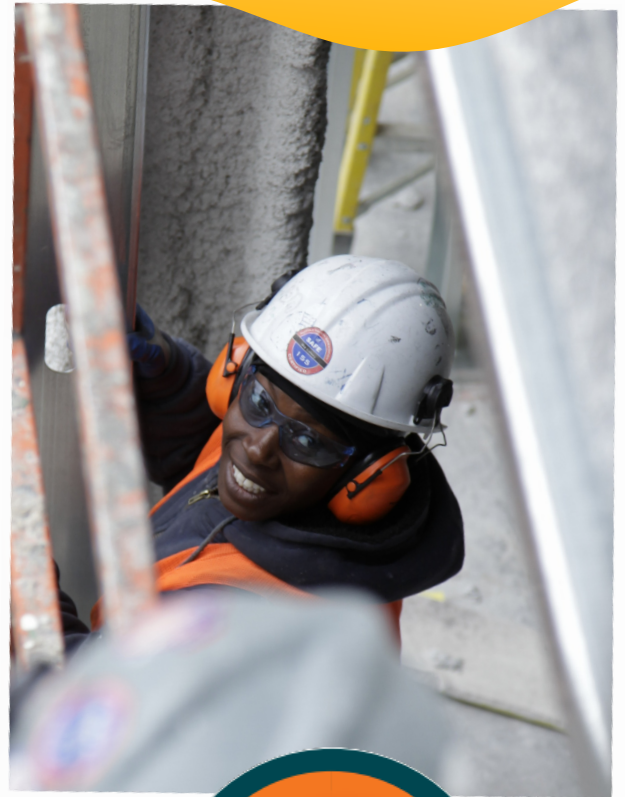

Through partnerships with Benjamin Franklin Institute of Technology, Alfred State University and SUNY Sullivan, NASRCC members can advance as construction professionals and earn a college degree.

► A DIVERSITY OF BACKGROUND AND TALENT

TOGETHER WITH OUR PARTNERS, WE LIVE AND WORK IN A WORLD OF RICH DIVERSITY. YOU'LL FIND THIS REFLECTED IN OUR PEOPLE, IN OUR WIDE RANGE OF BACKGROUNDS, IDENTITIES AND TALENTS.

We commit to attracting and cultivating a diverse workforce grounded in deep respect for one another by:

- ✓ Creating and implementing a pre-apprentice program for women.
- ✓ Coordinating Sisters in the Brotherhood committees throughout the union that offer support and guidance to female carpenters.
- ✓ Providing bi-lingual resources for current and prospective members.
- ✓ Working with underserved communities and residents to present the opportunity for a career in carpentry.

► PARTNERSHIPS BUILT ON COLLABORATION

WE GET FURTHER WHEN WE GO TOGETHER, COLLABORATING TO AMPLIFY OUR STRENGTHS.

This includes contractors and developers, political leaders and governments, other trades, and our local communities: we build the relationships with them that contribute to success for us all.

..... CAREER CONNECTIONS
