TALAH HUGHES SIGNS LETTER OF INTENT TO ST. PETER'S UNIVERSITY

Talah Hughes signed a NCAA letter of intent to St. Peter's University, becoming only the second female basketball player in the history of Beacon High School to receive a NCAA Division One basketball scholarship. Since St. Peter's University is located in New Jersey and competes in the MAAC Conference with Marist, Fairfield, Iona and Siena Beacon students and residents will have the opportunity to see Talah play

Talah has played varsity girls basketball for four years and has received numerous awards; including All-League, All-Section, MVP, and Poughkeepsie Journal All Star. She has led the team the past two years in scoring, rebounds and blocked shots. Talah stands in a league of her own. Her commitment to excellence on the court coupled with the constant support of her family encouraging her to elevate her level of play has allowed her to develop into a remarkable all around player. Talah is tenacious about improving her performance and understands that sacrifice is a pivotal component of success. Talah's dedication to basketball year round including her commitment to AAU, and her focus on improving her level of game is profound. Her confidence and humility has taken her to great heights and will continue to allow her to flourish at St. Peter's. Talah's smoothness, versatility on the court, and natural talent as a player is undeniable, and makes watching her play enjoyable and at times fascinating. Coach Christina Dahl is most proud of Talah's depth of her character. "The selflessness, determination and integrity she exhibits both on the court and in the classroom makes her an absolute pleasure to coach. She is a well respected student athlete not only by her peers but also by her teachers and administration"

ROMANELLI SIGNS WITH WAKE FOREST

Tony Romanelli signed a letter of intent with Wake Forest University to play Division One college baseball. Tony is a 6-foot-3 left handed pitcher who verbally committed to Wake Forest as a sophomore but had to officially sign this month.

Tony has been the backbone of the Bulldog pitching staff since his freshman year. He has been named All-League, All-County, All Section three times during his high school career. He has been County and League Pitcher of the Year three times, Conference Pitcher of the Year twice, and Section One Pitcher of the Year as a junior. Tony has been recognized on the state and national levels as well. He was named 6th team All-State as a freshman, 3rd team All-State as a sophomore and 1st Team All-State as a junior. Louisville Slugger has named Tony a pre-season All-America before his sophomore and junior seasons, culminating with being named an All-American for each of his three high school seasons. Tony led Beacon to the Section One Class A finals last year as he posted a 6-0 record while recording 73 strikeouts in 52.7 innings. He also set the school record for the lowest ERA in a season with .41 during his sophomore season.

"The Beacon Bulldog baseball community is very excited about our native son Tony Romanelli becoming a Demon Deacon. Wake Forest is getting not only a super talented three time Louisville Slugger All-America but a great student and leader who has been a tremendous role model for our school and community."

PHILLIPS RUNS WILD FOR BEACON

Taurus Phillips had a breakout season this year for the Beacon football team. He led them to a 5-4 record and helped them to score 259 points for the season. Taurus finished the season with 1074 yards rushing and 9 rushing TD which resulted in over 13 yards per carry. He had 248 yards receiving and 3 receiving TD and also threw for 3 scores and had kick return for a TD as well.

He is the first player since 2003 to rush for a 1000 yards. Offense might have been his strength, but Taurus also had a great defensive year for the Bulldogs playing safety and cornerback. With all of his accomplishments this year, the most impressive aspect of his game was how he had grown as a person and a leader of the team.

It took just one carry for the 1000 people in attendance at the Section One Senior Bowl to scramble for their rosters to see who number 27 in the gold helmet was. Taurus touched the ball once, made two cuts in the first and second level and exploded for a 38-yard touchdown. His second carry? That one went for 55 yards as he wowed the crowd with more missed tackles and speed. Taurus finished the Senior Bowl with nine carries for 116 yards and two touchdowns.

"It was so much fun to be in this game and let people know that we can play in Beacon too," Taurus said after the game. "It was cool to get recognition from the other players who maybe didn't know how good I was."

Taurus rushed for over 1,000 yards on the season on just 79 carries for 13.8 yards per carry. Taurus has interest from University of Albany, Central Connecticut, Sacred Heart, and Lehigh.

Family Affair: Beacon's Andrew Grella Joins Binghamton's Recruiting Class

Thoughts of attending Binghamton entered Andrew Grella's mind as soon as his older brother Vincent, the squad's current 165-pound starter, decided to become a Bearcat a few years ago. "I'm close with my brother, and I've always wanted to do what he does," Andrew Grella said. "I thought it would be a good place because of my brother and because it's such a good school."

If the future 197-pounder wasn't already convinced, he became sure of his decision when he made his official visit to campus. "It was a really fun time," he said. "We went out to dinner and lunches and played paintball. It was cool to be a part of that team bonding. I walked around campus and went fishing with a bunch of the guys, which was great."

Indeed, for Grella, who wants to study environmental science, the opportunity to pursue outdoor activities was a big selling point. "I'm a really big outdoors guy. One of the first questions I asked when I got there was whether there were good spots for hunting and fishing around there," he said. "They just laughed."

Grella's road to Division I wrestling is slightly atypical. After enduring a difficult season as a ninth grader at 152 pounds, Grella said he didn't compete during his sophomore year at Beacon High School. "I got my butt kicked as a freshman as a middleweight," he said. "I wasn't strong enough and wrestled a lot of tough seniors. My brother was at 152 too, so I didn't even get that many matches. I decided to take a year and focus on getting really strong, getting in great shape and improving my technique."

His work seemed to pay dividends when he took the mat at the NHSCA Sophomore Nationals in Virginia Beach at 170 pounds, coming within one win of All-America status at the event. Then, it was time to return to New York high school action. He did so with a flourish, racking up a 27-3 mark at 182 pounds (prior to Sectionals) as a junior in 2012-13. All of his losses were to wrestlers who finished in the top four at the New York state tournament, including a pair of silver medalists.

In fact, his first bout at the Eastern States Classic in January was against eventual 195-pound NYS second place finisher Levi Ashley of Shenendehowa. In a hard fought contest, Ashley came out on top 8-6. "I didn't have credentials or seeding criteria, so I knew I'd probably get a great wrestler right off the bat," Grella said. "I knew it would be a tight match and he hit me with the same move twice to beat me. It was disappointing."

He rebounded well, however, capturing five straight matches in the wrestlebacks, including over state placers Andrew Martinez of Liberty and Matt Roberts of Monsignor Farrell as well as qualifier Nathanael Rose of Eagle Academy. His streak was stopped by 182-pound state finalist James Corbett of Wantagh and he later forfeited to take sixth. "I had a hip injury after my first two wins," he said. "I wrapped it up and won a few more after that. I could barely walk back to the center of the mat without falling over. It was bad. But I showed I could compete with some very good wrestlers."

He continued to pile up wins before dropping the Section 1 championship bout to Thomas Murray of Yorktown, 3-0. [Murray went on to take fourth in Albany in 2013, a year after losing a close match in the Section 1 title bout and not getting a bid to the Times Union Center].

Murray's path of second in Section 1 to All-State status a year later is one that Grella hopes to emulate – at least somewhat. "That's the plan I want to follow, except I plan to win it all," he said. "I expect to do big things this year, including winning a 195-pound state championship." And if he needs a tough partner to work with, he knows he can find one whenever his brother returns from Binghamton. "Whenever he's home, we wrestle," Andrew Grella said. "Someone's always bleeding. I'd say I get the best of it, but if you ask him, you'll get a different answer." Soon enough, the Grella brothers will have more opportunities to "bleed" together, as teammates for the Bearcats.

RYAN TOMPKINS NAMED TEAM CAPTAIN FOR THE WEST POINT WRESTLING TEAM

Ryan Tompkins, Beacon High School 2010 graduate, is entering his senior year at West Point and was named captain of the 2013-14 wrestling team. Ryan is majoring in Geospatial Information Science and will be going to flight school to become a pilot after graduation. Listed below are some of Ryan's accomplishments as a wrestler for Army.

2012-13: Finished 14-14 overall and 4-4 in dual matches ... totaled one major decision while tying for second on the team with six pins... wrestled 17 bouts at 174 pounds before competing in 11 more at 184 pounds ... placed fourth at the Oklahoma-Gold Classic on Nov.10 ... registered three pins en route to a fifth-place finish at the New York State Championships on Nov. 17 ... earned a 5-3 win in his first match at the EIWA Championships on March 8.

2011-12: Put together a 9-10 record with two pins and one major decision ... went 3-1 in dual matches ... began the season by placing fifth at the Oklahoma-Gold Classic compiled a 4-2 mark with a pair of bonus-point victories en route to the fifth-place showing ...won both of his bouts at the Northeast Duals, defeating opponents from Binghamton and Sacred Heart ... won a dual match during the Hofstra contest ... also wrestled at the Body Bar Invitational, Cliff Keen Invitational and Southern Scuffle.

2010-11: Forged a 13-12 overall record as a plebe, competing almost exclusively at tournaments ... wrestled most of the season at 165 pounds, before moving up to the 174-pound weight class late in the year ... ranked third on the team with five pins ... placed third at the All-Academy Championships after authoring a 3-1 mark with a pin ... also competed at the Clarion Open, Oklahoma-Gold Classic, Body Bar Invitational, Southern Scuffle and Shorty Hitchcock Invitational ... posted a 3-2 mark at the Clarion Open with three pins ...lost his only dual match to an opponent from Bucknell.

Students Named Scholar Athlete and 4 Teams Earn the NYSPHSAA Team Athlete Award

This past fall season 211 students were named as Scholar athletes. 62% of our athletes participating on teams maintained an average of 85 or better. In addition, the Girls Swim, Boys Soccer, Volleyball, and Girls Tennis teams earned New York State Public High School Athletic Association Team Scholar Athlete Awards. This award is given to teams with a cumulative average of above 90.

The coaches have done a tremendous job making academic achievement a priority. It is through the efforts of coaches and teachers working together that our athletes have been able to attain academic success. Over the past few years the number of ineligible athletes has significantly decreased and the number of scholar athletes has increased. This fall was an all time high for the number of scholar athletes.

The teachers deserve a lot of credit for working with the athletes and coaches!! Most importantly, congratulations to the Student Athletes for their accomplishments in the classroom!!

2013—14 WINTER SEASON PREVIEW

Varsity Boys Swimming

Coach: Larry Collins – 10th season

Returning Players:

New Swimmers to Watch: Ewan Davidson, Tyler Ericson, Kevin Heady, Sean Landers, David Landers, Matt Welsh, Anthony Diaz and Maurice James

Coaches Quote: This will be considered a rebuilding year with so many brand-new swimmers on the team.

Veteran captains Nick Negron and Brendan Warner will need to provide leadership to a young squad of inexperienced swimmers. Returning diver Jesse Rotering will be the athlete to watch this year as he will try for his first bid for high school State Championships.

Varsity Bowling

Coach: Brian Mahon—15th season

Key Losses: Brett DeNicolas

Returning Bowlers: Kevin Meeker, Doug Wessels, Brandon Gertel, Cameron Nettleton, Peter Ostrow, Stefani Dobert, Morgan Flamholtz, Kelli Moseman, Corena Maraziti and Clarissa Virtuoso

Boys Bowlers to Watch: Brandon Gertel, Kevin Meeker, Stefani Dobert, Clarissa Virtuoso

Coaches Quote: This year the boys and girls teams are fortunate to bring back most of the players from last season. Both teams also have some young bowlers that are looking to make an impact. Expectations are high for this year's team as we aim to win a league title.

Varsity Girls Basketball

Coach: Christina Dahl— 10 years head coach

Last Years record: 11-8

Returning Players: Talah Hughes, Cassidy Acuti, Brooke Dennin, Mary Jacketti, Emma Haran, Tiarra Dembo, Leandra Echi, Leah Giovatto, Miranda Dross, Lauren Schetter.

Key Losses: The team returns 10 out of 11 players from last years team.

New Players to Watch: Sara Nesheiwat

Coach's Quote: This year's team returns ten players from last year's squad. As a team we are optimistic and with the right mindset believe we can be very successful. We have set forth team goals to accomplish and with talented and dedicated returning players ready to contribute we expect to be competitive in every game this season.

The team will also be led by Division One basketball player Talah Hughes.

Varsity Boys and Girls Winter Track

Coaches: Jim Henry - 9th Season and DJ Paulson - 4th Season

Key Losses: Ryan Kuka, Eric Gaster, Greg Crusie

Newcomers: Justice Telesco (sprints, jumps)

Coach's quote: "Moving from the smallest Class A to the largest Class B school in Section 1 should make us quite good. Having the talent that we have on the roster should make us even better than that. I expect senior James Brown to return to States for the 3rd consecutive year and I hope that he can have some underclass teammates make it there as well. I expect to win the league championship and think we will contend for a Sectional championship. It will all be dependent on how rapidly some of our talented underclassmen start performing at an elite level. This is the first season in a long time that we will have a relay team (4x400) that will have a chance to win at the sectional level. It should be a very exciting season!"

Varsity Girls

Key Returners: Paige Baisley (HJ, hurdles), Serene Good (middle distance), Erica Blair (HJ, middle distance)

Key Losses: Ashanti Harris (sprints, jumps)

Coach's quote: "Lots of newcomers so it should be interesting to see what we can put together and how quickly we can teach skill events to the rookies. Paige Baisley will be looking for her 2nd consecutive trip to states in the high jump after finishing last season as one of the top freshman high jumpers in New York State. With significant effort, we may have a shot at our 1st girl's league championship since the 2012 Outdoor season. It will all be a matter of depth and willingness among the athletes to master 3 or more events apiece."

2012 WINTER SEASON PREVIEW

Junior Varsity Boys Basketball

Coach: Scott Timpano— 3rd year head coach

Last Years record: 13—5

Returning Players: Jason Antalek, Shaheim Fryar, Asa Garner, Trey Herring, Brandon Johnson

Key Losses: Alfredo Robles, Josiah McCall, Kishaun Bell, Thomas Giavatto, Zach DiGregorio

New Players to Watch: Jordan Kolakoski, Joe Ferrone, Andre Davis

Coach's Quote: We begin this season as we have in the past: sending up a lot of talented players to Varsity. This means that we have a lot of talent who is waiting to show what they can do on the court. We have a solid core of returning players along with a great group of new players. We lost a lot of our size, so we will counter that with high pressure defense and solid fundamentals. We are setting very high standards for ourselves and are aiming to be a very fast-paced, but disciplined team. If you haven't been out to support the JV and Varsity Basketball teams, now is a great time to start because this is sure to be an exciting year for the Bulldogs.

JV Girls Basketball

Coach: Allyson Biordi - 1st year

Returning Players: Raiven Encarnacion

New Players to Watch: Ema Jacketti

Coaches Quote: The JV Girls basketball team is comprised of motivated, hard-working, dedicated players on both the court and the classroom. This season, we have a young team that is eager to learn and improve. With this motivation and dedication we should have a competitive season full of fun, learning, and success

"The strength of the team is each individual member. The strength of each member is the team." -Phil Jackson

Varsity and JV Cheerleading

Coaches: Alisa Pacheco 5th year varsity 6 years with the program. Kristian Anderson first year JV coach

Returning Cheerleaders: Genesis Castillo, Ana Vogrinic, Shaolyn Cureton, Dominique LaMar, Indira Estrada Colon, Isha Simmons, Kyra Russell, Sharice Little-John, Ginangelis Cepeda

New Cheerleaders to Watch: Indira Estrada Colon and Shaolyn Cureton

Coaches Quote: "Be sharp, tight, clean and have fun!!" Preparing for competition takes a lot of team work and determination. This group of girls are very determined and hard working. Looking forward to seeing what the season will bring for the team.

Varsity and JV Wrestling

Coaches: Ron Tompkins— 16th year and Adam McPartland—3rd year

Key Returners: Andrew Grella, Malachai Maloney, Dennis Peckron, Ryan Korzekwinski, Justin Sonko

Key Newcomers: Justin Warner

Wrestlers to Watch: Andrew Grella Malachai Maloney, Dennis Peckron

Coach's Quote: The team this year has some experienced wrestlers and some that are new to the sport. The coaches feel that with the wrestler's hard work during practices combined with their determination and enthusiasm they will have a better dual meet team which will make for a successful season. The team will be led by 2013 Section One runner-up, Andrew Grella.

Varsity Dance

Coach: Taylor Lyons — 1st year head coach.

Key Returning Dancers: Emily Hill, Amber Wilson, and Abbie Wood.

New Dancers to Watch: Abby Antalek, Jessica Baumen, Courtney Burke, Cassidy Coulter, Kara Dunderdale, Jalana Fuller, Liann Romine, and Kayla Winters.

Coach's Quote: The majority of the dancers are new to the team this year and are looking forward to performing advanced routines to please the crowds at basketball games and competitions

Varsity Boys Basketball

Coach: Tom Powers, 26th year head coach

2012-13 record: 8-12

Key returners: Tony Romanelli, sr., C; Elijah Hughes, so. F/G; Tyree Burns, sr., F; Patrick Schetter, sr., G/F; Nick DiNapoli, sr., G; Naqiy Burnett, sr., G

Key newcomers: Kishaun Bell, so., F; Josiah McCall, so., G/F

Outlook: "We finished the season on a high note as far as the team coming together," Powers said of his Bulldogs, who extended the top seed in Class A Byram Hills to overtime in the first round of the Section 1 tournament. "We're looking to pick up right where we left off and hopefully have a strong campaign."
